BUY ONE-OF-A-KIND METAL ARTWORKS FOR A GOOD CAUSE DURING BTC'S WELDING FAB WEEK SCULPTURE AUCTION NOW THROUGH MARCH 29

Bellingham, WA — Bellingham Technical College Welding students competed last week to see who could create the best sculptures from scrap metal during Welding Fab Week, and now the community has an opportunity to bid on their fantastic creations.

The public can bid on 13 different pieces created by student welding teams, ranging from nature-inspired sculptures of gardens, fish and trees, to functional but beautiful benches and planters. Money raised from the auction goes toward scholarships and support for BTC Welding students.

Items are open for bidding through the event's online auction site now until 12 p.m. on Wednesday, March 29. Those interested in participating can find instructions for how to register for the auction and bid on the auction site.

The public is welcome to come see the sculptures in person in Morse Center on BTC's campus during normal business hours.

BTC gives thanks to BP Cherry Point as the presenting sponsor for this year's Welding Fab Week.
